

From NEC Australia

NEC Ambassador Dylan Alcott

Special presentation this Friday at 1pm (Melbourne time)

Dear JCCIM Members,

This Friday at 1pm (Melbourne time), our incredible NEC Ambassador Dylan Alcott will be joining us for a special presentation.

Dylan made history this year when he became the first man ever to clinch four Grand Slam titles and a Paralympic Gold in a calendar year, making him a Golden Slam tennis champion and World No. 1.

During Dylan's presentation he will speak to us about:

- His journey from Australian Open Wheelchair tennis Champion to the USA Open Wheelchair tennis champion
- Dealing with COVID – training and travel in very unique circumstances
- The road through each tournament
- Representing Australia at the Paralympic games
- Reflecting on all his achievements
- Where to from here.....

We'd love to see you there to hear from an amazing athlete and very valuable part of NEC. Please join us in attending this presentation by clicking on this link HERE, for access to the 'teams event' on Friday.

Our Mission

We live to solve customer challenges through targeted and innovative technology solutions.