Sogetsu School of Ikebana Victorian Branch

Ikebana is the art of Japanese flower arranging.

The Sogetsu School is one of the largest of many schools established in Japan and has a large international representation.

Its principles encourage development of personal style and place a strong emphasis upon creative, contemporary interpretation.

Attendance at workshops is restricted to members of the Sogetsu School of Ikebana Victorian Branch and advanced students of teachers who are members of the Sogetsu Teachers Association, Japan. Student membership is open to people studying Books 3 & 4.

Qualified teachers, who are members of the Sogetsu Teachers Association, Japan, are available, and conduct classes throughout the Melbourne metropolitan, outer suburban areas and Geelong.

Kosa Nishiyama

Sogetsu Victoria is pleased to introduce our special guest from Sogetsu School of Ikebana Japan, Mrs. Kosa Nishiyama.

Kosa Nishiyama began studying Sogetsu Ikebana in 1972, and is a Sogetsu first Grade RIJI Teacher, and Sogetsu Headquarters Master Instructor. Since 2010, Kosa has been teaching the Men's Executive Class at Sogetsu headquarters.

In 1999, she hosted the first large creative exhibition of “Seijo Flower Atelier”, and in 2017 she held the 6th exhibition, ‘Wind of Anticipation’ at Sogetsu Plaza, for which she received the “Sogetsu Flower Works Award”. Kosa does demonstrations and workshops in Japan, abroad and online, and has done demonstrations in Hong Kong, New Delhi, Boston, Bangkok and Dallas. She would like to share the wide variety of Ikebana with many people around the world.
